

Reprints Desk Selects Raj Vaghela as Product Lead for Next Generation SaaS Platform

Vaghela Joins Research Solutions Subsidiary Reprints Desk from Pharmaceutical Drug Safety Software Division at ProQuest LLC

ENCINO, Calif., January 11, 2017 — Research Solutions, Inc., (OTCQB: RSSS), a pioneer in providing cloud-based solutions for scientific research, has appointed Raj Vaghela to Director of Product Management for its wholly-owned subsidiary Reprints Desk. The company simplifies how organizations procure, access, manage, use, and legally share scholarly journal articles and other content in scientific, technical, and medical (STM) research.

An accomplished technology professional within the digital information industry, Vaghela joins Reprints Desk from ProQuest LLC and will own both strategy and design decisions for Reprints Desk's existing and future online technology platform. Reprints Desk is currently preparing to launch the next generation of its award-winning software-as-a-service research retrieval platform later in 2017.

Prior to his work with Reprints Desk, Vaghela served as Technology Manager and Project Lead for ProQuest's Pi2 drug safety software division. Vaghela previously also worked as a software developer at cyberThink Inc. and SunShine Enterprise. He has achieved multiple certifications from Microsoft and is a certified ITIL® professional, trained in consistent and comprehensive documentation of best practice for IT Service Management.

“Raj brings more than 14 years of experience developing scientific workflow solutions for companies in pharmaceuticals and other life science market segments,” noted Chief Sales and Marketing Officer Ian Palmer. “We are extremely pleased that he has agreed to join the Reprints Desk team. His product management expertise will immediately benefit Reprints Desk’s product development program, especially as we expand our technology to serve new users and new markets.”

Vaghela earned a Master’s of Information Technology from Vancouver University Worldwide and a Bachelor of Engineering in Information Technology from Gujarat University. For more information about Raj Vaghela, please visit www.linkedin.com/in/rajnikantv.
